

School students, villagers lock School for 3 hrs

● Charge that there is only one teacher and he often remains absent

Dongargaon, Aug 27:

The school children and villagers locked the Primary School in Manikpur under Churiya block of the district and staged sit-in in front of the School itself here on Friday. At present there are 46 children studying in Primary School Manikpur from Class 1-5 and there is only one teacher here and he also remains absent from time-to-time. With only one head master in the School, the studies of the students is getting badly affected for last one year and about which the villagers have lodged complaint with the Department many a times, but to no avail. The newly appointed teacher in the School amidst the government orders is not able to give his presence even in the last Independence Day and due to which there is great deal of resentment among the villagers. So to register protest the villagers locked the School's main gate on Aug 25 and got in touch with the local administration and media. During this the BJP leader Harendra Sahu reached the venue to know about the problem and after 3hrs of lockdown in the School, BEO Churiya along with departmental officers and Tehsildar reached the site and gave assurance to the villagers for ensuring presence of a teacher in the School on regular basis and after which the lock was opened. The villagers also charged serious allegations against the government for removing the teacher from the School. On this the Tehsildar Kumarda - Ankshah Sahu said that it will be investigated.

Devsingh Nishad aims to represent Basna constituency

Pithora, Aug 27: Devsingh "Devnath" Nishad, a highly recognized political figure in the Basna Assembly constituency, has officially declared his candidacy for the upcoming Basna Assembly elections. Known for his active participation in the political landscape of Pithora, Devsingh Nishad has established a unique identity. His extensive experience as the President of the Municipal Council in Pithora for four consecutive terms is a testament to his unwavering dedication to public service.

His wife, Smt. Parvati Devnath Nishad, secured a win in 2009 due to women's reservations, earning 665 votes and becoming President for the fourth time with 69 votes. His straightforward demeanor has earned him substantial popularity among the Devsingh Nishad once again secured the trust of the people, becoming President for the fourth time with 69 votes. His straightforward demeanor has earned him substantial popularity among the masses. Currently, he serves as the Ward Councillor for Ward No. 12.

Hailing from the esteemed Nishad family, known for their stewardship of the Shikula Society, Devsingh Nishad carries a strong dedication to serving the farming community. Growing up in a farmer's household, he remains deeply connected to the concerns of the agricultural sector. His cordial relations with residents of Sankara and Basna further underscore his humble and welcoming nature.

During his tenure as President, Devsingh Nishad achieved a significant milestone by encouraging families from the educationally disadvantaged Devar Dera community to prioritize their children's education. As a result, several children from this community have pursued education up to the 10th grade, and some have even completed their education and entered into marital unions.

Former Mayor Jatun submits application to block President

● To contest assembly elections

Jagdulpur, Aug 27: Ever since the Congress has invited applications from the contenders willing to contest the Vidhan Sabha (VS) elections, the process of submitting application for candidature for respective seats in Jagdulpur assembly has also started. Saket Shukla handed over the application to block president Kailash Nag for his candidature from Jagdulpur assembly seat.

NSUI Bastar and former State General Secretary Chhattisgarh Youth Congress. He also played an excellent role in the rail movement of Bastar. Apart from this, TV Ravi of Congress has given his application today. Former Mayor of Congress Jatun Jaiswal along with his supporters came to present his claim to the Block Congress President. So far three names have come in the list of Congress contenders. Out of which Jatun Jaiswal is considered to be a prominent name. On the other hand, Jagdulpur MIA Rekhand Jain, IVIPRA Vice President Rajeev Sharma and Malkit Singh Gaidu are also considered strong contenders, their claims are yet to come. However, the Congmen themselves do not lag behind in describing Rekhand Jain's tenure as better. But can't hide the longing to see himself in the same seat. The possibility of more claimants coming forward cannot be ruled out.

Disability testing and certification camp conducted

Central Chronicle News

Khairagarh, Aug 27: In a significant step towards empowering individuals with disabilities, the district successfully conducted a one-day Disability Testing and Certification Camp under the direction of Collector Gopal Verma. The camp was held at the Cultural Hall in the city. The event was geared towards providing testing and certification documentation to disabled individuals within the district.

In line with Collector Gopal Verma's proactive approach, disabled individuals falling under the jurisdiction of the Persons with Disabilities Act were granted certificates on-site, eliminating the need for them to navigate through bureaucratic processes.
